K4AlphabetReview.pdf Pg 5 A- Z Puzzle If the puzzle is too hard print 2 copies of this file. Leave 1 whole as game board, cut the other up for a matching game	K4A-Z SpoonCards.pdf (Cut this file into strips. Buy 2 colors of plastic spoons 26 each color. On one color write upper case alphabet, and the other write lowercase. Have your child place the correct spoon on each letter.) (pg 23-24 of K4AlphabetReview.pdf)	K4MyName.pdf Learn My Name Write your child's name on the card then use several different alphabet manipulatives to have them practice spelling their name.	K4AlphabetReview.pdf Pg 3 Assessment Test Complete the uppercase assessment. Use do-a-dot markers or bingo markers with this. Say a letter and have your child mark it. Note which letters they need to work on.	K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 4 Assessment Test (Complete the lowercase assessment) Use do-a-dot markers or bingo markers with this. Say a letter and have your child mark it
K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 17 A-Z Matching use this with magnetic letter tiles to match lowercase to uppercase, or uppercase to uppercase.	K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 39-40 Play the Alphabet Game!	Paint Bag: Practice all the letters, numbers, shapes etc (Fill Gallon ziplock bag with tempera paint then seal well, tape bag to tabletop, then let students trace letters in paint with fingertip)	K4A-ZFloorLetters.pdf Spread out letters on floor and: 1. Call out letter and have them hop to it. 2. Have them say letter/sound as they hop on each one 3. Have them put in ABC order Magnetic Letters builders (I print then use magnetic laminate from JoAnn's to make these. You can also make them with foam sheets from any craft store)	K4MemoryVerseHandwriting.pdf Page 3
K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 8 Clothes Pin MatchUp: Uppercase letter Disk	K4AlphabetReview.pdf Pg 48 -Vowel Sorting Game: Materials - various letter manipulatives (Now that we know our ABC's let's learn which are vowels! Sing the vowel song and use several different alphabet manipulatives to sort onto the board.) "I know the names of my vowels, of my vowels, of my vowels, I know the names of my vowels a e i o u! (Tune of London Bridges)	K4AlphabetReview.pdf Pgs 49-50 Alphabet Tracing Laminated and used dry-erase markers	K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 41-47 - Upper/Lowercase Match Up: Have students mark the lowercase letter that matches the uppercase letter on each card. You can also use dry-erase and circle the letters, or don't laminate and use do-a-dot markers.	Read: pick any book and spend some time reading aloud together.
K4_A_Z_AlphabeticalOrderPuzzle.pdf Have students cut out the strips along the solid lines. Then place strips into alphabetical order to complete the puzzle. Optional: You can laminate to re-use, or have students glue the strips onto a large piece of construction paper.	K4AlphabetReview.pdf pg 7 Clothes Pin Letter MatchUp Lowercase disk	Read	K4AlphabetReview.pdf Pg 6 Clothes Pin MatchUp: Picture Disk Write letters a-z on mini wooden clothes pins.
