

A Character study:

Peacemaking

“And how from infancy you have known the holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.”

2 Timothy 3:15-17

This character study is designed to illustrate this character trait using verses, stories, consequences of sin and blessings of obedience found through out the Bible.

Each day you will learn a verse, read a story where this sin is illustrated, then discuss the consequences of this sin followed up by the blessings of obedience. I encourage discussion with your children on ways they can help one another to stay free from this sin.

Resources: This study was created using references from the Bible and the book “For Instruction in Righteousness” by Pam Forster

Peacemaking

Memory Verse:

1 Peter 3:8 Finally, all of you, live in harmony with one another; be sympathetic, love as brothers, be compassionate and humble.

Day 1

What does peace mean? An agreement or a treaty to end hostilities. A state of tranquility or quiet .

What does the bible say about peace makers? "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called the children of God." Matt. 5:9 KJV

What does contention mean? Striving in controversy to win a competition or argument. (Controversy - is a state of prolonged public dispute or debate, usually concerning a matter of opinion)

What is an Opinion? A personal belief or judgment that is not founded on proof or certainty.

What should we base our beliefs on? God's Word, not our feelings and emotions.

Is it profitable to argue about opinions? Is it profitable to argue about material possessions? Why or why not?

Story:

Gen 37, 39-40 Joseph and his brothers (Jealousy lead to conspiracy, lying and kidnapping, Joseph forgave)

Blessings of Obedience:

Genesis 41:41 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

Consequences of sin:

Genesis 37:31 So they took Joseph's tunic, killed a kid of the goats, and dipped the tunic in the blood. <sup>32</sup> Then they sent the tunic of many colors, and they brought it to their father and said, "We have found this. Do you know whether it is your son's tunic or not?" (Joseph's brothers hated him so much they plotted his death and lied to their father)

Questions:

1. What do you think would have happened had Joseph's brother's not hated him?
2. Do you think that God was in charge in this situation? Why?

Challenge: Today's challenge is to live in harmony with one another, choose a gentle response instead of a harsh one.

Activity:

Grab a ball and head outside to play catch. Point out that you are able to play because both of you are participating. Then drop the ball and walk away. Explain to your child that an argument is a lot like playing catch. If one person chooses to drop the ball and walk away, the argument is over. Next time you hear arguing, ask your child, "Are you willing to drop the ball?"

Day 2

Story:

Genesis 41-45 (Continued story of Joseph)

Blessings of Obedience:

Genesis 45:8 So now it was not you who sent me here, but God; and He has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

Questions:

1. Was God able to turn Joseph's brother's hatred into good?
2. How are we to handle arguments? Proverbs 15:1 A gentle answer turns away wrath, but a harsh word stirs up anger.

Challenge: Be a peacemaker for the day, even if others are not choosing peace.

Day 3

Story:

Genesis 27 Jacob and Esau (hatred and desire for revenge)

Consequences of sin:

Genesis 27:41 So Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him, and Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand; then I will kill my brother Jacob."

Questions:

1. What do you think would have happened if Jacob had not deceived his father?
2. How do you think Jacob's father felt being lied to by his son?
3. Did Jacob and Esau's arguing affect their family? (
4. How does it affect others when you choose NOT to be peacemakers? (Gen 27:46 family was divided)

Challenge: Be a peacemaker for the day

Activity: Make friendship bracelets together. Talk about what it means to be a good friend to both our friends and our family members. Their bracelet can serve as a reminder to keep the peace when conflicts arise. If you have more than one child, they can make the bracelet for their sibling.

Story:

1 Samuel 25 Abigail makes peace with David

Blessings of peacemaking:

1 Samuel 25:32 David said to Abigail, "Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you today to meet me. May you be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself with my own hands. Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak."

Questions:

1. Why did Abigail quickly rush to make peace with David?
2. Did her actions to bring peace affect others?
3. How do your actions of arguing or making peace affect those around you?

How does the Bible guide us to resolve arguments?

Matthew 18:15-17 "If your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between the two of you. If he listens to you, you have won your brother over. But if he will not listen, take one or two others along, so that every matter may be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses. If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if he refuses to listen even to the church, treat him as you would a pagan or a tax collector."

Romans 14:19 Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.

Peacemaking Card: Add the peacemaking apple to your character tree! (If you haven't already, put up a tree using brown and green construction paper. Each week you will add a new apple to the tree)

Review Questions:

1. How does our effort to bring peace effect others?
2. How would our arguing effect others?
3. How does arguing effect our relationship with God and with our parents?

Application:

1. What does peacemaking look like in our home?
2. How can we practice peacemaking?

Prayer:

Dear Jesus, Please help me to have a heart of peace. I ask that you would give me the strength to make peace in all circumstances so that I can glorify You. I thank you and praise you for all you've done for me. Amen.
