

Chore Chart Printables

By Erica @ www.confessionsofahomeschooler.com

Supplies needed:

- Cardstock
- Hanging card holder similar to the one in the photo.
(You can find it here at Amazon)
- Reward Stickers
- Small Prize box (you can make this anything you like)

Instructions for Slots:

1. Card with child's name
- 2.-6. Mon—Fri Chore cards to be completed
7. Reward tickets, Sticker Sheet, Best Bee-havior Rewards
8. I keep extra cards, tickets, etc in the bottom row of slots.

Directions:

Put the assigned task cards in the 2nd—6th slots. When a task is completed, your child can turn their card backwards and place it behind the other task cards to be completed for the day.

At the end of the day, look to see which tasks are completed and switch them out with reward tickets and stickers. At the end of the week, allow your child to spend his tickets on items in a small prize box (gum, candy, erasers, pencils, etc) .

If your child completes all the assigned tasks in a day, they receive a sticker on the reward card in the 7th slot. Once that reward card is full, they can exchange it for something more special like larger prize box, I use things like mini-Lego sets, Pet-Shop's, Polly Pockets, computer time, TV time, Wii Time etc.

Included are also "Best Bee-havior" cards that you can reward when your child has displayed a good attitude for the entire day, helping others, being kind to siblings, or anything else you deem as outstanding behavior. These are very special for our family and are handed out only for very good behavior. They can be redeemed for something fancier like a trip to ice cream, a sleep over, etc.

If a task is not completed, the child does not earn tickets or stickers.

NOTE: Pages 21-15 are Black and White cards incase you don't want to print in all color.
